

Travis Hardwick is the President & CEO of TCC Multi-Family Interiors, a company he has been with for over 25 years. He graduated from Baylor University with a BBA in Economics and received his Juris Doctorate from South Texas College of Law. In 2019 the Houston Business Journal honored him with its prestigious Most Admired CEO Award. He currently serves on the board of directors of Texas First Bank and on the board of trustees at Northland Christian School.

Travis has been married to his wife, Tiffany, for almost 20 years. They have three children (Savannah, Garrett and Stetson), and they have lived in the community for 15 years. During that time, he has been extensively involved in the area, coaching his children and others in various sports, as well as serving the cub scouts at Brill Elementary. His company is a member of the Northwest Houston Chamber of Commerce, with headquarters close to the district.

His motivation to seek election to PUD Board is to serve this community. With a strong commitment to humble leadership, Travis believes there are solutions to the issues currently facing our community. His priorities for the district are to:

- *Preserve the beauty of the park while mitigating risk of flooding
- *Sustain and enhance PUD services to residents
- *Maintain security and safety in the district
- *Increase property values
